Córdoba City, Argentine, 22nd March

Dear Mr. Connolly,

The students association at the Law School of the Córdoba National University in Córdoba City, Argentina is hereby declaring its participation in the Public Talks initiative. We welcome the opportunity to participate in this world event, and inform that this project will be interesting for all the students of the institute. I hope some more information to give in my university to be more notice of this initiative, if its possible in Spanish, if not, doesn't matter, we will translate it.

Kind regards,

Marco J. Puricelli

President of the Students Centre

School of Law, Córdoba National University
