Dear Mr. Connolly

At the Universidad de los Andes, we are pleased to receive the invitation sent by the Institute for Public Dialogue, in order to participate in the Public Talks program organized by your organization. We hope that in the near future, the efforts of different organizations around the world can help develop a plan that promotes communication and international dialogue to resolve conflicts. Therefore, we accept your invitation and hope to contribute towards achieving the goals and mission of this initiative.

Sincerely,

Sergio Rodríguez
