Dear Mr Connolly,

I am writing to thank you for kindly inviting the Essex Politics Society to support and advance the innovative idea of `Public Talks` as a formal alternative to the current practices of dealing with conflict situations. To continue, our society is delighted to accept your invitation, as we believe that any initiative, which seeks to resolve conflicts in a peaceful way, is more than welcomed.

Last, but not least, we are looking forward to meet fellow students and discuss the manner in which this idea can be implemented during the web conference.

Sincerely,

*Anamaria Sabau
