Mr. Connolly,

My organization is very happy to be invited to participate in the Public Talks. I've visited the website and am very excited about helping out with this original and inventive idea to create worldwide dialogue instead of violence. It's about time that Public Talks start and misunderstanding stops.

With that said, please let me know what further actions my organization, Mizzou Change Today, can take to make sure that Public Talks as an International University Event happens on the MU campus.

Sincerely,

Mary Mantei
